Saint Andrews

Noble Order of Royal Scots

Saint Andrew's Guild reenacts the 16th century court life of Mary Stuart, Queen of Scotland & the Isles. We educate the public at Renaissance Faires, Schools and Scottish Games, with live performances and interactions.

About Saint Andrew's

Saint Andrew's Noble Order of Royal Scots is one of the largest Scottish Renaissance Guilds in California. We perform at Renaissance Faires, Scottish Games and Schools throughout Northern California and the Bay Area, with over 100 members. The court of Mary, Queen of Scotland is typically the centerpiece of the faires we attend.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Saint Andrews is a non profit reenactment group dedicated to educating the public on the history, custom, dress, and culture of Scotland in the year 1562.

• Royal Guard • Courtier • Highlander • Ambassador •

We portray the Queen's court on her progress through Scotland. Our days include parades, dance shows, dueling, feasting, shopping, great battles; and lots of fun!

The Royal Guard battles Highlanders Lord Kael MacGregor, the Queen's High Sheriff The Queen does a little flirting in court You can't take a Highlander anywhere May the Queen live forever!
